

Demolition

Heads up hardhat sledge hammer hell to pay
Tow truck more junk another demolition day
Cars in the back yard, kitchen sinks rot away
Hands tied landslide bobcat that got away
Bare-knuckle knee deep workin in a shit heap
Brain fried can't hide another demolition day

Oil soaked goat stinkin demolition pieces of junk

Well the junk's piled a mile high
Car won't go the motor died
There's a shed I want up in the hills
Next to the tracks on an oil spill
There's a lumber yard in your back yard
There's an iron truss with a load of rust
There's a pile of stone in the kitchen sink
Where's the goat? I found the stink

Oil soaked goat stinkin demolition pieces of junk

He's got a head for a bargain
He's got an eye for a deal
Scrap metal logic and a soft spot
For twisted steel
He's got a glint in his eye
He's got a grin in his beard
The demolition shed man
Is pretty weird
